

Automotive Education Products

What is the difference between the Manual Hybrid System Model and the Motor Driven Model?

A Motor Driven Model Hybrid System Model works electronically, meaning it comes with a motor that powers the system model to show how it works. A manual one has a hand crank that you need to rotate for the model to function. Both of the models offer the same features otherwise.

Unique solution ID: #1067

Author: Joni

Last update: 2013-08-21 16:09